

Pilkington Graduate Aerobatic Scholarship

The recipient of the scholarship receives:

- Two books:
  - Aerobatics Down Under by David J Pilkington AND
  - The Basic Aerobatic Manual by William K Kershner OR
  - Better Aerobatics by Alan Cassidy
- Three hours of ground theory training towards the 1500 ft aerobatic endorsement.
- Four hours of flying in a Super Decathlon or five hours in a Cessna 152 Aerobat.

An applicant must have a minimum of an RPL and an aerobatic endorsement. Those with more aerobatic experience including aerobatic instructors are welcome to apply.

Scholarship applications should be in the form of a written essay of approximately 300 words. The selection criterion is simply consideration of that written essay with respect to the goal of providing an overall benefit to the sport of aerobatics (within a reasonable timeframe).

The application should include a short bio, copy of pilot licence and relevant logbook extract.

Send applications to david.pilkington@ozaeros.com.au and ensure acknowledgement of receipt.

The syllabus of flight training covers:

- Refresher of basic aerobatics.
- Compound manoeuvres.
- Flying the Australian Aerobatic Club's Graduate (or Sportsman) sequence.

The recipient must:

- Read the book prior to commencement of training.
- Complete the Endorsement Questionnaire for the aircraft prior to flight training.

Notes:

- Applications close 18th January 2024 and the recipient announced approximately 1st February.
- Training to be done in the Melbourne area at the normal base for the aircraft.
- Training must be completed within one year.
- The goal is to promote competition aerobatics so the scope of training is towards a 1500 ft endorsement starting with the Graduate (or Sportsman) Known competition sequence.
- Upon completion of this training the recipient should be ready for their first contest.
